Review from Goodreads.com

Families who enjoy wholesome entertainment like 7th Heaven will appreciate the quality writing, talented actors, and sound production of the new dramatic audio series Down Gilead Lane. Meet the Morrisons—a lively family of two parents, five kids, and one dog—who learn what it means to live out their faith through oftentimes funny, and sometimes mysterious, circumstances. The first compilation release in the Down Gilead Lane series, Crazy Grace, includes 13 entertaining half-hour episodes, each with a memorable message.

[Seasons 1-7 are available for checkout in the Family Section for Audio books next to the DVD's]

Recommended for 8-12 alone, and below 8 with family. Like Odyssey's, they are good for summer travel. Thanks for Pastor Michael and his family for donating these to our library. Seasons 8-12 have just arrived and will be available in a couple of weeks.

New Adventures in Odyssey

The loss of a child is a devastating experience that we cannot imagine, but that Steven Curtis Chapman and his wife, Mary Beth, experienced in 2008. when their adopted daughter, Maria, was accidentally run over by their son in the driveway. Having read the mother's perspective in Choosing to See (BCHA), now comes his autobiography in the words of a music master. His wife in her book said that he had worked through his grief in his music, albums such as Beauty Will Rise, Recreated, and The Glorious Unfolding will show you the processing of a deep wound but with faith intact even with questions and struggles. I am looking forward to reading this. It's on my list.
